WEEK 2.a:

During one of our classes, our instructor mentioned that in some interviews, you might be asked to continue your introduction in just 25 words. After many trials, I was able to finalize as follows:

"Harshita, a passionate software developer proficient in various programming languages, a creative problem-solver and a Bhangra performer, is dedicated to achieving excellence in technology."